Zeck Blinker Joerg catfish spinning rod

Experience ultimate fishing success with the Zeck Blinker Joerg catfish spinning rod - your reliable partner for targeted catfish fishing. This rod, specially developed in collaboration with the successful catfish spinning angler Joerg Willems, combines outstanding quality with sophisticated design to offer you an unforgettable fishing experience.

Advantages at a glance

- Length and control: The Zeck Joerg Spin (2.70 m) and Longcast (3.00 m) spoons offer optimum control and precision when casting and retrieving the lure.
- Robust material: Made from high-quality carbon fibre, this spinning rod is ideal for fishing for large predatory fish such as catfish.
- High-quality components: Equipped with sturdy K-Concept Fuji guides and an ergonomic handle made of EVA Camou, it ensures comfortable handling even on longer fishing trips.
- Special designs: The spin version is perfect for precise casts and versatile use, while the longcast version has been specially developed for maximum casting distances in large waters.

Zeck Blinker Joerg Spin

The perfect choice for precise and controlled catfish fishing. With its 2.70 m length, this spinning rod offers optimum handling and resilience for catching large predatory fish. The 6+1 K-Concept guides in combination with the extremely light and fast blank ensure outstanding casting properties. The wide range of casting weights enables the use of a wide variety of lures. Despite its low weight, the rod has sufficient power reserves during the fight, even with large catfish. The handle below the reel seat measures 39.5 cm and offers optimum comfort. Each rod is securely packed and supplied in a high-quality rod case.

Zeck Blinker Joerg Longcast

Ideal for long casts and use in large waters. This 3.00 m rod enables maximum casting distances and scores with its first-class stability and ergonomics. The K-Concept guides were selected one size larger for the starting guide and second guide in order to optimise the casting distance. In extensive tests, this design also proved itself with anglers of different heights and abilities. The Longcast has a low dead weight and a powerful backbone that successfully fatigues catfish of all sizes. An extension sleeve has been added to the reel seat to allow flexibility in the choice of reel. Each rod is securely packed and supplied in a high-quality rod case.

Why Zeck Blinker Joerg catfish rods?

The Zeck Blinker Joerg catfish rod is more than just a fishing rod - it is a statement of quality and performance. Whether you prefer precise casts in smaller waters or long casts in large lakes, this rod offers the ideal solution for every fishing condition.
