Precision and range

Thanks to its aerodynamic shape and the heavy tungsten ball at the back, the Bonnie 85 can be cast particularly accurately and far. This feature makes it ideal for fishing for asp and perch, even in hard-to-reach places.

Subtle noise attraction

The subtle sounds produced by small glass beads in the head imitate small prey perfectly. This sound attraction is often the decisive stimulus that entices fish to attack.

Versatility for different target fish

Whether fishing for black bass over weed or hunting other predatory fish, the Illex Bonnie 85 is an essential surface lure in any tackle box. It is ideal for various fish species and makes every fishing trip more successful.

Why the Illex Bonnie 85?

This hardbait stickbait is not just a must for experienced anglers. Its features make it an indispensable tool for anyone who wants to maximise their chances of catching fish. Try the Illex Bonnie 85 and experience the fascination of perfect fishing.
