Protect yourself in style: NRS Boaters gloves for water sports and more

Designed for kayaking, rafting and beyond - the NRS Boaters Gloves for men in navy blue offer not only premium protection, but also premium comfort. These versatile gloves are not only ideal for warm weather, but are great for activities like cycling and fishing.

Features:

The NRS Boaters Gloves for men offer a robust construction with a palm made from high quality Amara synthetic leather that extends to the cuff. This protects your skin from blisters while reinforcing the wrist. In addition, the palm design with silicone accents provides excellent grip and control, while ventilation holes ensure breathability. The open-finger design allows free finger movement, ideal for dexterous tasks such as tying knots or operating a camera. Convenient pairing snaps at the wrists prevent you from ever losing a single pair. The nylon/spandex material provides ultimate sun protection by extending a little past the wrist and can be easily combined with long sleeves.
