Maximise your fishing success with the Illex Blade Bait Runner Blade 70

Discover the newest member of the BLADE RUNNER family: the Illex Blade Bait Runner Blade 70. This compact 70 mm design opens up new dimensions for freshwater and light sea fishing. Whether you prefer the linear retrieve in open water or the yo-yo technique over the bottom, this lure is your secret weapon.

Wide range of applications

Equipped with three attachment points, the BLADE RUNNER 70 offers exceptional versatility. Whether you want to fish at depths of up to 1.50 metres, between 2 and 3 metres or with the vertical yo-yo tactic, this lure adapts to your needs. The strong vibration ensures that the BLADE RUNNER 70 should not be missing in any bait box.

Target fish

As a true all-rounder, this lure appeals to a variety of predatory fish. In the sea, it attracts sea bass, bonito, mackerel and Spanish mackerel, while in fresh water it outwits perch, black bass, pike, zander and asp. The vibrating blade ensures bites where other lures fail.
